Describe your conversion and your commitment to the Lord and the local church.

What is your concept of the unique mission of RFI as reflected in the following founding principles, and what makes you want to play a role in that mission?

- 1. To study the Reformed faith and to develop its implications as it relates to all of human life and activity;
- 2. To disseminate and defend the Reformed faith in opposition to all errors, heresies and trends of thought hostile to the development of a full-orbed and fully committed Christian life;
- 3. To encourage and promote respect for the Reformed tradition by all lawful means;
- 4. To publish Reformed periodicals and literature.

RFI understands the word "Reformed" as applied in the founding principles to refer to the truths set forth in the Bible, the inerrant Word of God, and summarized in the creeds of the Reformed and Presbyterian traditions: the Heidelberg Catechism, the Belgic Confession, the Canons of Dort, the Westminster Confession of Faith, and the Westminster Larger and Shorter Catechisms.

DO YOU FULLY SUBSCRIBE TO THIS STATEMENT OF FAITH AND TO THE FOUNDING PRINCIPLES OF RFI?
